EXPERIENCE

Ms. Branson joined Pollart Miller in 2013. She represents employers and insurance carriers before state courts and administrative agencies.

After graduating from law school, Ms. Branson began a judicial clerkship in the 18th Judicial District. While clerking, Ms. Branson drafted numerous orders and participated in over fifty jury trials. Following her clerkship, Ms. Branson joined Lasater & Martin, where she defended insurance carriers in complex construction defect cases. At Pollart Miller, Ms. Branson's practice focuses on workers' compensation and subrogation.
