EXPERIENCE

Mr. Miller practices in the areas of civil litigation including workers' compensation, insurance defense, subrogation and employment law.

After law school, Mr. Miller joined Felhaber, Larson, Fenlon & Vogt, which is an AV rated law firm with sixty plus attorneys and offices located in Minneapolis and St. Paul, Minnesota. Mr. Miller defended employment and workers' compensation claims as well as handling subrogation issues and complex commercial and civil litigation matters. Mr. Miller received significant trial experience and successfully argued appeals and motions in Minnesota State District Court, United States District Court and the Court of Appeals of Minnesota. Mr. Miller has several published cases in Minnesota and was a frequent lecturer on workers' compensation issues for Employer Education Services at the University of Minnesota.

Mr. Miller moved to Colorado in June of 2000 and joined the law firm of Ruegsegger Thomas, LLC. Mr. Miller's practice at Ruegsegger Thomas, LLC focused on workers' compensation and insurance defense.

Beginning in June of 2003, Mr. Miller was a founding member of Pollart & Miller LLC. The firm started with three attorneys and one paralegal and over time grew to more than 20 attorneys and 60 total employees. Mr. Miller continues to focus on workers' compensation, subrogation issues and insurance defense matters. He has successfully argued cases at the Office of Administrative Hearings, the Industrial Claims Appeal Office and the Court of Appeals of Colorado. Mr. Miller also defends workers' compensation cases in Utah and Arizona at the request of his clients.

DENVER | SALT LAKE CITY | PHOENIX

Mr. Miller has numerous Fortune 100 and Fortune 500 clients and has represented small employers as well. His experience defending employment and complex civil litigation matters in the past has given him perspective to provide comprehensive legal advice when defending workers' compensation claims.

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

Mr. Miller is a frequent lecturer on a variety of insurance law topics and litigation. In the past, he has provided twice-a-year progressive training to claims professionals through a program at the University of Minnesota. He has been asked by multiple third-party administrators to provide training to new hires, and presently continues to provide such training services to his clients. Mr. Miller has also presented at the National Claims Conferences at the request of his Fortune 500 clients.
