EXPERIENCE

Kristi Robarge joined Pollart Miller LLC in 2020 focusing her practice on workers' compensation defense, subrogation, civil litigation, and employment law. She has experience representing all types of employers including small local businesses to large national corporations. Ms. Robarge has experience in all aspects of workers' compensation from inception of an injury through hearing, appeal, and subrogation recovery. Ms. Robarge also has experience representing clients in both state and federal district court.

Ms. Robarge earned her Juris Doctorate from California Western School of Law in 2011. During law school, Ms. Robarge interned for a firm that represented claimants in workers' compensation matters. Ms. Robarge also clerked for a large medical malpractice defense firm and gained practical experience with legal research and writing.

Ms. Robarge enjoys snowboarding, hiking, and spending time with her family in the Colorado outdoors. Prior to law school, Ms. Robarge earned her Bachelor of Arts in Criminal Justice from Colorado State University.
